

FINAL PROGRESS ASSESSMENT and REPORT INSTRUCTIONS
Environment Grants (revised: 12/2006)

Both nonprofits and funders alike have an accountability to the community for how grant funds are used and how the community is changed as a result of charitable activities. The final progress report is intended to give the grantee a structured process for reflecting on its work and the grantee/funder partnership a vehicle for describing its impacts to the community.

Report Instructions

Email your completed report as an attachment to Dana Johnson at djohnson@sonomacf.org. Please do not fax your report. The report heading should include the following information exactly as it is presented here:

(In your report, please re-state and then respond to each of the following questions. Your narrative responses to items 2 – 5 should not exceed two pages.)

2. Describe any unexpected changed conditions within your organization that affected your project during the reporting period. Describe how your organization responded to those changed conditions.

3. Describe any unexpected changed conditions in the community that affected your project during the reporting period. Describe how your organization responded to those changed conditions.

4. Describe your assessment of the program’s impact(s). Include one or two anecdotes, stories or examples about how the project has affected the lives of individuals or made an impact on the opportunity or issue involved.

5. Is there anything else you would like to say concerning the project, the issue, population or opportunity you addressed?

In addition to your narrative report, please report on your use of Community Foundation funds using the following table format. Report only on your Community Foundation grant funds and include only line items that were in your approved Community Foundation grant budget (see column 6, page 2 of your budget).

| | Approved Budget for use of Community Foundation Funds | Actual Expenditures of Community Foundation Funds |
|----------------------|--|--|
| Grant Amount: | | - X - |
| Line Items: | | |
