Sonoma County Resilience Fund launches with a $250,000 seed gift from Facebook

Community Foundation Sonoma County (CFSC) has launched the Sonoma County Resilience Fund to address the mid to long-term needs of those impacted from the devastating fires in Sonoma County.

Facebook has announced a seed gift of $250,000 to the Sonoma County Resilience Fund. Donors are welcome to give online, via check, or transfer of stock or securities. Online gifts can be made here: <http://www.sonomacf.org/sonoma-county-resilience-fund/>

CFSC brings 30 years of grantmaking experience and on-the-ground relationships to support rebuilding in the Sonoma County region, where 22 people have died in fast-moving wildfires and hundreds are still missing.

CFSC implements a thorough due diligence process to identify and vet nonprofit organizations to receive funding. Recovery needs will range from immediate need for basic food and supplies, to longer term economic, health and social support.

About the Community Foundation Sonoma County:

Community Foundation Sonoma County is the hub of philanthropy for the county, connecting people, ideas and resources to benefit all who live here. Founded in 1983, CFSC works with philanthropists to create plans that will make an impact in our community and become part of their family's legacy.
